Beginning of Lifelong Learning: Academic Donovan Fellowship

In the late 1950’s, Dr. Herman Donovan, President of the University of Kentucky (UK), dreamt of enriching the lives of older persons. He proposed that colleges and universities open their doors to persons aged 65 and older, allowing them to register for courses free of cost so that they could continue to pursue their interests. He reasoned that colleges and universities owed their greatness to the work, support, gifts, taxes and votes of our older generations.

Twenty-six Donovan Scholars, ranging in age from 65 to 84, were admitted to UK in the fall of 1964, joining 18-year old counterparts for the first time. One of the first programs of its kind in the country, it was not long before the Donovan Program gained national attention. In 1966, TIME magazine dubbed the program “Educare”, an obvious reference to Medicare which was in the news at the time. Whereas most of the early Donovan Scholars were from the Lexington area, the national publicity resulted in inquiries from every state and many foreign countries. (pictured to the left: Donovan Scholar in classroom during 1960s)

Educational and Enrichment Courses: For the Joy of Learning!

Courses offered in the community were added in 1966 for adults 60+. The Donovan Forum which began in 1970 offers a series of lectures, workshops and entertainment on a wide variety of topics presented by University professors, public and private organizational representatives, OLLI Members, etc.

Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at UK

In January 2007, UK received financial support from the Bernard Osher Foundation to increase learning opportunities in Lexington, allowing our offerings to widen in number and scope, and our membership by lowering the age to 50 and extending lifelong learning to other sites in Kentucky. The Osher Foundation continued their support financially to the University of Kentucky through additional grants, gifts and finally 2 endowments. A National Resource Center, created and funded by the Osher Foundation, supports a national network of 125 OLLIs located from Maine to Hawaii.

OLLI at UK offers courses, forums, seminars, day trips, shared interest groups and events throughout the year in a variety of topics, formats and locations.

Dates and Times: Mondays, June 3 – 24
1 – 3 p.m.
Course Location: Hunter Presbyterian Church, Fellowship Hall
Maximum Enrollment: 22 | Course Fee: $30

This is a lecture class with slide shows and student participation. To understand how Dada came about, we will start with a review of the situation in Europe during the chaos of World War I, which was the major cause of disillusionment. In Dada, the shocking reality of a brutal and unnecessary war in which an estimated ten million perished, called for an art that presented the violent barbarism of war and the ironies and absurdities of modern life. Conventional European culture with its High Art and ‘Art for Art’s Sake’ was unable to do anything to prevent the rapid escalation of what seemed like a predestined eradication of civilization. We will look at the art produced by Dada’s major players in Zurich, Berlin, Cologne, Paris, and New York from 1916 to 1924 when Surrealism took the reins of the avant-garde.

Cleveland Museum of Art - 3 Summer Courses
Dates and Times: Fridays, June 7 - 21
10 – 11 a.m.
Location: Online Zoom Course
Maximum Enrollment: 200 | Course Fee: $30

This summer, register to take a series of 3 Cleveland Art Museum online courses! The 3 courses will include "Ancient American Art: The Aztec & their Ancestors" (June 7), "Gods and Heroes of Greece and Rome" (June 14) and "Monet in Focus" (June 28). When you register for this series, you are registering to attend all 3 sessions in the series. See descriptions below:

- Ancient American Art: The Aztec & their Ancestors
  Friday, June 7, 2024, 10 - 11 a.m.
  This lesson introduces the art of selected cultures in ancient Mesoamerica (today, Mexico, Guatemala and adjacent countries). Objects of ceramic, gold and stone (including jade) shed light on religion and rulership among the Aztec, Maya, and others in the centuries before European contact. An effort is made to provoke students to think critically as they help the instructor analyze art works and their meanings.

- Gods and Heroes of Greece and Rome
  Friday, June 14, 2024, 10 - 11 a.m.
  Learn why Herakles, Athena, and Dionysus populate the CMA galleries in sculpture, coins, vases and a sarcophagus.

- Monet in Focus
  Friday, June 28, 2024, 10 - 11 a.m.
  This exhibition of five stellar paintings by French Impressionist Claude Monet features three special loans from the Musée Marmottan Monet in Paris placed in intriguing conversation with two favorites from the Cleveland Museum of Art’s collection. Created during the latter half of the artist’s life, these works reveal how fully Monet immersed himself in capturing the momentary effects of light and atmosphere on subjects, at various times of day and under different weather conditions. Daring in their conception and execution, they also affirm Monet’s status as one of the leading cutting-edge painters of his era. Monet in Focus is co-organized by the Cleveland Museum of Art and the Musée Marmottan Monet.
